1. Introduction

The abstract should be written in English using the Times New Roman font (14 point for the Title and 11 point for the text), and should be single spaced. In the book of abstracts, papers will be printed reduced by 88%. The document (including title, authors, affiliation, postal address, figures and references) must be fitted within one page with a top margin of 30 mm and a bottom margin of 25 mm. The main text consists of two columns with 81 mm wide, spaced 8 mm apart.

Table 1. Topics of AIRAPT-22

T01	Structure and phase transition
T02	New developments using neutron and synchrotron sources
T03	Electrical and magnetic properties
T04	Optical and acoustic properties
T05	Molecular and organic solids
T06	Liquid and amorphous materials
T07	Water and ices
T08	Thermophysical properties of fluids
T09	Supercritical fluids
T10	Geophysical and planetary science
T11	Computational materials science
T12	Chemical reaction and kinetics
T13	Synthesis of new organic and inorganic materials
T14	Superhard materials
T15	Superconducting and novel materials
T16	Dynamic pressure and shock wave
T17	Bioscience and food technology
T18	Hot and cold isostatic pressing process
T19	Apparatus and instrumentation
T20	High pressure scale

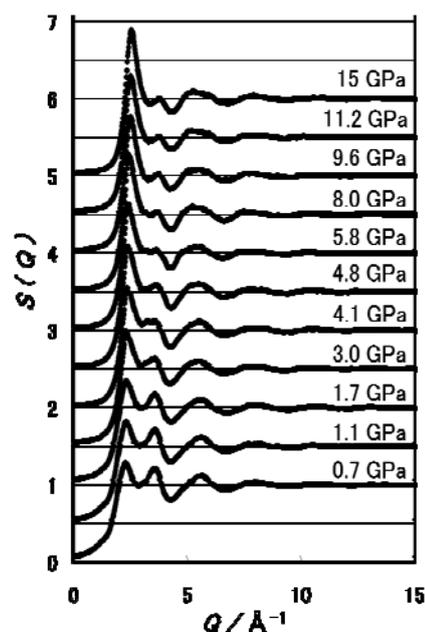

The title, author(s) and affiliation(s) should be centered. Section titles should start without indentation. Leave a space of one line between the affiliation(s) and the first section title, and one line between text and figures (tables etc.) or captions. Underline the name of the author who will present the paper. Please write the e-mail address of the corresponding author at the end of the references (*).

One participant can submit only one paper except the invited talk and the paper for symposium.

2. Submission

The author should send the author information and the abstract pdf file to the conference secretariat. The author should select the first and the second suitable topics numbers from the list. Next, the author should choose the preference of the presentation; oral presentation, poster presentation or either. The decision will be made by the Program Committee.

Figure 1. Figures and Tables should be included in the main text. Monochromatic abstract will be printed in the book of abstracts.
